Mr. Jan Veen, world renown choreographer and instructor of the dance, a member of the faculty of Boston Conservatory of Music, presented a most entertaining and instructive lecture on this subject, ably assisted by 20 of his advanced and graduate students.

Mr. Veen's lecture and the interpretations by his students touched on all phases of dancing - ballet, folk, modern, jazz, etc.

Also, the performers presented dance numbers designed and choreographed by themselves, in costumes they made themselves.

At the conclusion of the programs the Old Rochester students and teachers were so thrilled at the performances that they called Mr. Veen and his students back for 3 curtain calls.

Mr. Joseph Kunces, superintendent, and Mr. Donald Gavin, principal, were high in their praise and deep in their appreciation of Mr. Veen, his students and FORAM for sponsoring the program.

Mrs. David Goodenough, FORAM assembly program chairman, and Mr. Zavan Mazmanian, school director of music, handled all arrangements.

This is the first of a series of assemblies to be sponsored by FORAM, who, in cooperation with the school authorities, desire to present

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, FEBRUARY 23

Trophy fever took over Knotty Pine Cafe as they continued their winning ways in the Rochester Bowling League. A sparkling 382 by Bob Jefferson gave the Cafe 2 points in their match with Hartley's Garage. Maury Dion rolled a 391 to save one point for the Garage. Herb's TV upset Lloyd's Market to take two points as Maury Gifford dropped 337 ducks for Herbs and Eddie Graham pinned a 333 for Lloyds. Johnny Hayes turned in a 377 as Sturtevant and Hook swept three points from Hartley Saw Mill. Green Hartley tried to keep the Saw Mill in contention with a 342. Stu Lawrence had the only 400, a fine 401 triple as the Woodchoppers cut out two points

FOUR AGAINST EVEREST

Ticket sales for the lecture and films of Dr. Woodrow Wilson Sayre indicate a growing interest in the opportunity to hear an outstanding speaker. The story of Dr. Sayre's attempt to scale the forbidding North Face of Mt. Everest with three companions is almost unbelievable adventure; that he tumbled an incredible 1,000 feet down the glaciers' icy blocks and returned to tell about it is a story in itself.

Cadette Girl Scout Troop 49 is presenting this event Friday, April 9, at 8 P.M. at Old Rochester Regional High School to enable the Troop to take a trip to Washington, D. C. Tickets are available from any troop member or Mrs. Donald Wood,
